First of Our Big Purchases from the Auction Sale of the Arlington Mills Stock. On Sale Tomorrow

3,000 YARDS OF MOHAIR SICILIAN

Actually worth
$1.00 a Yard, for ... 59c

The Arlington Mills, the largest and best known manufacturers of dress goods in the United States, held a peremptory Auction Sale in New York city last week—the most important event of its kind held in many years. Buyers from every city were in attendance—as was our representative, who bought liberally of the choicest lots, and secured many fine "plums." The first of our purchases have been hurried to our counters for special selling, for it is our aim to lead in all such important trade movements as this.

The initial offering from the Arlington Mills Auction Sale consists of 3,000 yards of high-grade Mohair. Sicilian, 45 inches wide, in navy blue, royal blue, and black. This is one of the finest qualities manufactured by this famous mill—exceptionally high, lustrous finish, absolutely dust proof and reversible. Proper weight for unlined skirts, suits, and traveling wraps. Every yard actually worth one dollar. Sale price, 59c.
